Enrolled Agent (EA):

An enrolled agent is a person who has earned the privilege of representing taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service by either passing a three-part comprehensive IRS test covering individual and business tax returns, or through experience as a former IRS employee. Enrolled agent status is the highest credential the IRS awards. Individuals who obtain this elite status must adhere to ethical standards and complete 72 hours of continuing education courses every three years.

Enrolled agents, like attorneys and certified public accountants (CPAs), have unlimited practice rights. This means they are unrestricted as to which taxpayers they can represent, what types of tax matters they can handle, and which IRS offices they can represent clients before.

Certified Divorce Financial Analyst (CDFA®):

Divorce Financial Planning is the application of the discipline of financial planning to settlement strategies in divorce. The process requires the synthesis of tax, insurance, retirement and other areas of knowledge with their specific application to divorce. The eligibility requirements were established by the Board of Advisors and reflect the fact that this is not an entry-level designation but an advanced program.

Individuals with a minimum of three years of professional experience in finance or divorce and a Bachelors degree are eligible to enroll in the CDFA® Program. IDFA will accept ten years of professional experience from those candidates that do not have a Bachelor's degree. This includes experience as a financial professional, accountant, or matrimonial lawyer. Candidates should also have working knowledge of financial calculators before purchasing the program.

ITEM 3: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Mr. Vaccaro.

ITEM 4: OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Vaccaro, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Vaccaro to purchase insurance products on a commission basis. The recommendation by Mr. Vaccaro that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions or other compensation provides an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. The client's particular needs and goals are considered when purchasing an insurance contract. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Vaccaro. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Vaccaro through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

Mr. Vaccaro is a registered representative of Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc, a member FINRA/SIPC, a broker/dealer. In such capacity, Mr. Vaccaro receives commissions and other types of compensation, for example, mutual fund 12b-1 fees or variable annuity trails. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation when Mr. Vaccaro directs securities transactions for client accounts through Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc may give Mr. Vaccaro an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. However, Mr. Vaccaro will only recommend securities transactions that he believes are suitable for the client's account. Additionally, the Firm addresses this conflict of interest by addressing the conflict and disclosing the risk to clients.

ITEM 5: ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Anthony Vaccaro receives additional compensation in his active role as an insurance agent as well as his role as a registered representative. Mr. Vaccaro is licensed to sell life, health, fixed and variable insurance and may engage in product sales with clients, for which he will receive additional compensation. Any commissions received through insurance sales do not offset advisory fees the client may pay for advisory services under the firm. The client is under no obligation to purchase insurance products through Mr. Vaccaro.

As mentioned in Item 4, Mr. Vaccaro is a registered representative with Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc member FINRA/SIPC, a broker/dealer. In such capacity, Mr. Vaccaro receives commissions and other types of compensation, for example, mutual fund 12b-1 fees or variable annuity trails. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation when Mr. Vaccaro directs securities transactions for client accounts through Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc, may give Mr. Vaccaro an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. However, Mr. Vaccaro will only recommend securities transactions that he believes are suitable for the client's account.
