Professional Designations

Accredited Wealth Management Advisor (AWMA®): Accredited Wealth Management Advisors are licensed by the College of Financial Planning to use this designation. Individuals who hold the AWMA® designation have completed a course of study encompassing wealth strategies, equity-based compensation plans, tax reduction alternatives, and asset protection alternatives. AWMA® designation requirements:

- Completion of a 120-150 hour self-study program within one year of enrollment.
- Individuals are required to pass an online, timed and proctored end-of-course examination with a 70% score or higher.
- After successful completion of the end-of-course examination, individuals must apply for authorization to use the designation. The application includes:
 1. Adherence to the following Standards of Professional Conduct
 - Integrity - Provide professional services with integrity, honor, fairness, and dignity and maintain client trust and confidence.
 - Objectivity - Maintain objectivity and impartiality with respect to services rendered and advice given.
 - Competency - Maintain an adequate level of knowledge and skill and effectively apply that knowledge while recognizing its limitations.
 - Confidentiality - Keep client information confidential, disclosing only when authorized or compelled by law.
 - Professionalism - Comply with all laws and regulations as required and applicable, refraining from actions that bring dishonor to you or your profession.
 2. Self-Disclosure - Applicants must disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct. Conferment of the designation is contingent upon the College for Financial Planning's review of matters either self-disclosed or which are discovered by the College that are required to be disclosed.
 3. Adherence to Terms and Conditions - The Terms and Conditions outline designees' rights to use the College's Marks and acknowledge the rights of the College to protect the Marks from unauthorized use by individuals or entities.
- Following initial conferment of one of the professional designation, authorization for continued use of the credential must be renewed every two years by completing 16 hours of continuing education; reaffirming compliance with the Standards of Professional Conduct, Terms and Conditions; and complying with self-disclosure requirements.
- The College monitors its designees' compliance with the designation requirements and standards. Any alleged violations are subject to disciplinary procedure.
- If a violation of the Standards of Professional Conduct is found, disciplinary sanctions shall be based on the seriousness of the situation and may include, but are not limited to, reprimand, suspension or revocation of the designation.

ITEM 3: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Mr. Olsen.

ITEM 4: OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Olsen, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Olsen to purchase insurance products on a commission basis. The recommendation by Mr. Olsen that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions or other compensation provides an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. The client's particular needs and goals are considered when purchasing an insurance contract. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Olsen. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Olsen through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

Mr. Olsen offers securities as a registered representative of Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc, a member FINRA/SIPC, a broker/dealer . In such capacity, Mr. Olsen receives commissions and other types of compensation, for example, mutual fund 12b-1 fees or variable annuity trails. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation when Mr. Olsen directs securities transactions for client accounts through Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc, may give Mr. Olsen an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. However, Mr. Olsen will only recommend securities transactions that he believes are suitable for the client's account. Additionally, the Firm addresses this conflict of interest by addressing the conflict and disclosing the risk to clients.

ITEM 5: ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Timothy Olsen receives additional compensation in his active role as an insurance agent as well as his role as a registered representative. Mr. Olsen is licensed to sell life, health, fixed and variable insurance and may engage in product sales with clients, for which he will receive additional compensation. Any commissions received through insurance sales do not offset advisory fees the client may pay for advisory services under the firm. The client is under no obligation to purchase insurance products through Mr. Olsen.

As mentioned in Item 4, Mr. Olsen is a registered representative with Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc member FINRA/SIPC, a broker/dealer and Registered Investment Advisor. In such capacity, Mr. Olsen receives commissions and other types of compensation, for example, mutual fund 12b-1 fees or variable annuity trails. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation when Mr. Olsen directs securities transactions for client accounts through Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc, may give Mr. Olsen an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. However, Mr. Olsen will only recommend securities transactions that he believes are suitable for the client's account.

ITEM 6: SUPERVISION

Bill Prentice is the Chief Compliance Officer of the Firm, is responsible for supervision. He may be contacted at the phone number on this Brochure Supplement.
